NOTICE OF PRIVACY PRACTICES (HIPAA COMPLIANCE)

THIS NOTICE DESCRIBES HOW MEDICAL INFORMATION ABOUT YOU MAY BE USED AND DISCLOSED AND HOW YOU CAN GET ACCESS TO THIS INFORMATION. PLEASE REVIEW IT CAREFULLY.

Peter Klainer, M.D., F.A.C.S. provides cosmetic plastic surgery, cosmetic dermatology, outpatient cosmetic plastic surgery and related cosmetic medical aesthetic services. Chrysalis Plastic Surgery, Inc. is committed to maintaining the privacy of health information and to provide patients with a notice of its legal duties and privacy practices. Peter Klainer, M.D., F.A.C.S. will not use or disclose private health information except as described in this notice. "Private Health Information" is information about you which was created or received by Chrysalis Plastic Surgery, Inc. and that relates to a past, present or future physical or mental health or condition, or the provision of, or payment for, health care and which could be used to identify the patient.

EXAMPLES OF DISCLOSURE FOR TREATMENT, PAYMENT AND HEALTH OPERATIONS. The following categories describe the ways that Peter Klainer, M.D., F.A.C.S. may use and disclose private health information without written authorization.

Treatment: Chrysalis Plastic Surgery, Inc. will use health information in the provision and coordination of healthcare. We may disclose all or any portion of private health information, such as medical reports, to attending physicians and other health care providers who have an emergent need for such information in the care and continued treatment of the patient. Chrysalis Plastic Surgery, Inc. also may disclose health information to other people, such as family members, clergy and others who may be directly involved in the patient's care.

Payment: Chrysalis Plastic Surgery, Inc. may release private health information about the patient for the purposes of determining coverage, billing, claims management, private health data processing, and reimbursement. The information may be released to a health plan or health insurer, or a workers' compensation or other insurance company responsible for payment for our services, an employer involved in a workers' compensation program, and a third party payer or other entity (or their authorized representatives) involved in the payment of the patient's medical bill, and may include copies or excerpts of the private health record which are necessary for payment of the account. For example, a bill sent to a third party payer may include information that identifies the patient, the diagnosis, and the modalities used, and may include a copy of the medical report.

Health Care Operations: Chrysalis Plastic Surgery, Inc. may use and disclose private health information during routine healthcare operations including, without limitation, utilization review, evaluation of our staff, assessing the quality of care and outcomes in the patient's care and similar cases, internal auditing, accreditation, certification, licensing or credentialing activities, private health research and educational purposes.

Scheduling and Appointment Reminders: Chrysalis Plastic Surgery, Inc. may use and disclose private health information obtained when scheduling medical or other healthcare services and when it contacts the patient as a reminder of an appointment for services. Chrysalis Plastic Surgery, Inc. may also use and disclose private health information to tell the patient or others of information about treatment alternatives or other health-related benefits and services of possible interest to the patient.

Business Associates: Peter Klainer, M.D., F.A.C.S. may use and disclose certain private health information about the patient to business associates. A business associate is an individual or entity under contract with Peter Klainer, M.D., F.A.C.S. to perform or assist Peter Klainer, M.D., F.A.C.S. in a function or activity which necessitates access to, or the use or disclosure of, private health information. Example of business associates, include, but are not limited to, a copy service used by Peter Klainer, M.D., F.A.C.S. to copy private health records, consultants, accountants, lawyers, practice management organizations, private health transcriptionists, care managers, marketing and customer service personnel and third-party billing companies. Peter Klainer, M.D., F.A.C.S. will attempt to require the business associates to protect the confidentiality of private health information.

Regulatory Agencies: Peter Klainer, M.D., F.A.C.S. may disclose private health information to a health oversight agency for activities authorized by law, including, but not limited to, licensure, certification, audits, investigations and inspections.

Law Enforcement/Litigation: Peter Klainer, M.D., F.A.C.S. may disclose certain private health information for law enforcement purposes as required by law or in response to a valid subpoena or court order.

Workers' Compensation: Peter Klainer, M.D., F.A.C.S. may release private health information to employers, health care providers, examiners, judges, insurance companies, and others with a need to know, in connection with workers' compensation or similar programs. These programs provide benefits for work-related injuries or illnesses.

Military/Veterans: Peter Klainer, M.D., F.A.C.S. may disclose private health information as required by military command authorities, if the patient is a member of the armed forces.

Required by Law: Peter Klainer, M.D., F.A.C.S. will disclose certain private health information about you when required to do so by law including, without limitation, for judicial or administrative proceedings, to report information related to victims of abuse, neglect or violence, to assist law enforcement officials in their law enforcement duties.

Coroners, Medical Examiners, Funeral Directors: Peter Klainer, M.D., F.A.C.S. may release private health information to a coroner or private health examiner. This may be necessary, for example, to identify a deceased person or to determine a cause of death. Peter Klainer, M.D., F.A.C.S. may also release private health information to funeral directors as necessary to carry out their duties.

Other Uses: Any other uses and disclosures will be made only with written authorization.

PATIENT HEALTH INFORMATION RIGHTS: Although all records concerning treatment are the property of Peter Klainer, M.D., F.A.C.S. you have the following rights concerning private health information. ("CFR" below stands for the Code of Federal Regulations). To exercise any of these rights, please contact the Privacy Officer identified below, in writing.
